Dear Pete:

This is just a note of thanks for the briefing materials on the upcoming Washington energy conference. I am sure that my staff working on the energy problem will find it quite helpful. I have been very impressed with the close working relationship between the policymaking departments and the intelligence community on the whole energy question, especially since the current crisis began last October.

Sincerely,

W. E. Colby

MEMORANDUM FOR THE HONORABLE WILLIAM E. COLBY

FROM:

PETER M. FLANIGAN PMF

In preparation for the February 11 Ministers' meeting, CIEP has been coordinating the preparation of a world economic review of the effect of current oil price and supply conditions on the economics of several developed nations and the LDC's as a whole. A number of departments are contributing to this effort. The attached is a status report on the foreign economic impact of the oil price increase. New information is being collected for a later revision of this economic review.
